Forte Consultancy Group is a management consulting company established by a team of seasoned consultants who share a common vision with experience across the Middle East region. Forte Consultancy Group delivers fact-based solutions, balancing short and long term impact as well as benefits on stakeholders. Forte Consultancy Group provides a variety of service offerings for numerous sectors, through its offices in Istanbul and Dubai.

As a result of our ongoing growth and successful expansion in the region, we are now, looking for interns for our Istanbul office, to join our team with the following qualifications:

- 3rd or 4th year student of top-notch university
- Understanding of business terminology and concepts - strong internship in telecommunication, finance or retail industry is a plus
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills both in English and Turkish - proven people management experience (student clubs etc.) is a plus
- Strong proficiency with office software applications (particularly Excel and Powerpoint)
- Ability to work under tight deadlines and commitment to deliver high quality results in a team environment - proven track record (references, testimonials etc.) is a plus

Successful candidate will be expected to:

- Gather and derive information from multiple sources (desktop research, data analysis, stake holder interviews, market researches, site visits, surveys etc.)
- Assess mission-critical information and derive recommendations; decompose high-level information into details, abstract up from low-level information to a general understanding
- Prepare reports or presentations to communicate the findings and/or recommendations

Application deadline is May 31, 2010 and the internship period will be at least 2 months. To apply for the position, please send your updated resume to turkey@forteconsultancy.com
